ORDER

JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

If the Court lacks subject-matter jurisdiction, it sees no need to make matters worse by holding an initial pretrial conference. Accordingly, the initial pretrial conference is ADJOURNED sine die. No later than October 22, 2020, the parties shall file a joint letter (1) reporting the status of Plaintiff New York Wheel LLC's investigation into the matter and providing "a firm estimate of how much additional time may be needed"; and (2) as appropriate, proposing next steps with respect to the issue of jurisdiction. In the letter, Plaintiff New York Wheel LLC shall also explain when it first learned of the potential jurisdictional issue and why it did not learn of the issue earlier in the litigation. If or when the Court confirms that it has subject-matter jurisdiction, it will reschedule the initial pretrial conference.

SO ORDERED.
